Press Release

April 2005 --
NARI Member of the Month

A Focus on....

Hoffman Electric Inc.

David Hoffman, President of Hoffman Electric Inc., has been a member of NARI since October 2000.

Dave, a life long Omaha resident, began his training as an electrician nearly twenty five year ago with the vision of one day owning his own company. In 1996, Hoffman Electric Inc. became a reality.

The new business began on a small scale operating out of Hoffman's home but the venture grew and he quickly needed more and more space. Dave solved that problem by renting several storage facilities around town. In 2004, all business operations were combined at the current location of 4503 Q Street in south Omaha.

With the addition of Dennis May, Project Engineer, to his staff, Dave is expanding his business once again to include new construction and service for commercial work.

Dave and his staff of six are ready to help you with all of your electrical requirements.
