

Hoffman Herald

Press Release

March, 2008--

New Project Manager

Terry School

We have added Terry School to our staff.

He brings with him many years of experience

Terry was Chief Electrical Inspector for the City of Omaha for over six years.

Before that, he was the Plant Electrical Engineer for Control Data Corporation for nearly 20 years, after which, he successfully operated his own electrical contracting company.

Terry also served in the US Navy as an electrician.